

WREN WEEKLY NEWS

This Weeks News

Sensory

Happy New year you all. The Sensory provision have had a great first week back. Parrots class have moved into their new classroom and are all enjoying exploring the space.

We are planning our School production for the end of the Spring term, more news to follow.

Structured

The students in structured coped well with being back into school after the Christmas holidays. They have enjoyed a range of community visits and engaging in the music sessions with Paul, the music man.

The food tech sessions, sensory story and the sensory room activities have been the most popular sessions.

Collaborative

Welcome back to a new term, we hope you have been able to enjoy some time to rest. This Spring term we will be working on Food Tech skills, travel training, Photography, Healthy activities and routines and dealing with friendships.
